JOB DESCRIPTION
UCLA New Student Advisor (NSA)

New Student Advisors (NSAs) serve to assist new students and their families to transition to UCLA. All New Student Advisors are expected to perform the duties listed below. NSA Golds work with students only; NSA Blues work with students and families and provide administrative support thus have additional duties required.

Duties of New Student Advisors

I. Act as an advisor to an assigned group of new students during New Student Orientation sessions.

II. Act as a trained listener to help students clarify educational goals and objectives, personal concerns, and alternative solutions to possible dilemmas.

III. Assess student readiness to pursue academic directions and courses.

IV. Familiarize students with academic requirements, college rules and regulations, scholarship requirements, and degree requirements.

V. Suggest courses and class sequences to balance academic loads and to enhance learning.

VI. Counsel students about classes and majors including prerequisite and/or preparation requirements, course and major content, and performance expectations.

VII. Advise students on graduate and professional schools goals.

VIII. Introduce and instruct students on various online resources, including registration and enrollment, degree information, and on-campus resources.

IX. Describe the classroom experience for a UCLA student (e.g., the professor's role, lecture and discussion section activities, etc.).

X. Advise students on maintaining a successful balance between academics and involvement.

XI. Describe opportunities for campus service and co-curricular involvement, and how to use campus services.

XII. Plan and present workshops to address new students' needs and interests.

XIII. Discuss the idea of a liberal arts education and how the degree and post-graduate plans can be met within realistic student expectations.

XIV. Increase student confidence and help them overcome possible feelings of doubt.

XV. Describe pressures and sources of anxieties in the college experience and discuss personal experiences in resolving those conflicts (e.g., parental pressures, performance anxiety, career and major indecision, etc.).

XVI. Act as a responsible member of the program; work professionally and responsibly as part of a team and on individual projects.

XVII. Act as an ambassador for the University and answer inquiries at yield events such as UCLA Bruin Day.

XVIII. When available, assist in transition programs such as True Bruin Welcome Week, Orientation Part 2, and New Student Mentoring Program (Fall, Winter, or Spring quarter events).

XIX. Call incoming students to congratulate them on their admission to UCLA, address initial concerns, answer questions, and provide general information about campus services. Required: a minimum of 21 hours during Spring Quarter.

XX. Conduct tours of the campus.
Additional duties of NSA Blues

XXI. Interact professionally among students, co-workers, campus partners, and visitors to the UCLA New Student & Transition Programs office and refer them to the appropriate people or places.

XXII. Answer questions pertaining to New Student Orientation sessions, academic policies, and students’ and/or parents’ concerns. Assist in this manner in the office, during walk-up counseling, at workshops, during transition programs such as Bruin Day and True Bruin Welcome Week, and in small group discussions.

XXIII. Act as a counselor with an assigned group of family members and guests of new students at New Parent & Family Orientation. Answer questions from parents and/or other family members about the campus and being a UCLA student. Strong communication skills, patience and professionalism are essential. As a Young Bruins Counselor, coordinate and participate in children’s activities separate of the adult programming.

XXIV. General administrative duties including fielding phone and electronic inquiries regarding departmental programs and general campus information, data input of counseling and program evaluations, confirming session reservations, typing and/or editing correspondence and publications, and filing.
